The NRA Foundation Awards $2,760 to the Burnet County Sheriff's office

Burnet, Texas – The NRA Foundation has awarded the Burnet County Sheriff's office a grant totaling $2,760 to fund ammunition for firearms training. "We are very excited to receive monetary assistance in providing ammunition for firearms and active shooter training," said Capt. Ricky Bindseil, "and pleased that the NRA is making an investment in our community."

The Burnet County Sheriff's Office will purchase approximately 21,000 rounds of ammunition which will allow law enforcement officers to participate in active shooting events which will result in a more highly trained officer.

"The NRA Foundation has supported various law enforcement projects over the last several years," said Sheriff W.T. Smith, "and we appreciate the continued assistance to our law enforcement training efforts."
