

Burnet County Historical Commission Family History Application:

The Burnet County Historical Commission is endeavoring to record the next generation of history of Burnet County for future generations to come. Our history Books, Volume 1, has some information up to 1974 from the founding of the county and general history such as schools, business and the growth of the county. The family history book ended in 1900 and we want future generations to know the families who chose to live, work and raise families during the next period of time, in Burnet County.

Please fill out as much of the Family History form as possible. If you need more forms make as many copies as you need. Please be sure that your contact information is listed on ALL FORMS AND ALL PAGES and other information you send to us.

Your family history and information will be used in the Burnet County Historical Commission History Book, Volume 3. This volume will take 3 or more years to be published and available to the public. By filling out the form and signing it, you are giving permission to use your information. NO ADDRESSES, PHONE NUMBERS OR ANY OTHER PERSONNEL INFORMATION WILL NOT BE PUBLISHED THAT (Burnet County Historical Commission) DEEMS CONFIDENTIAL.

Your information will be archived in the Herman Brown Free Library's Genealogy Department at 100 East Washington, Burnet, Texas 78611.

Deadline for your information is December 31, 2026.

Please put your information in a large manilla envelope and either bring to the Herman Brown Free Library or mail to: _____.

If you have any questions please contact Polly Krenak, at 512-663-7941, please leave a message or email me at mpkrenak@yahoo.com, or text me at the above number.

Thank you so much for your interest in recording history for our future generations to come.

Polly Krenak, Chairman of the Burnet County Historical Commission
